

The state of Indiana has a strong "No Call" law that protects its citizens from telemarketing. Proposed federal legislation would weaken that effort in Indiana. Please do not implement anything that would weaken state law.